

PROGRAMME

MONDAY 7 JULY 2008 – UEA DRAMA STUDIO

09:00 – 09:55	Registration and Coffee/Tea/Pastries
09:55 – 10:00	Welcome Remarks Catherine Waddams , Director, CCP
Morning sessions: Meaning of Competition: Economic, Legal and Political Perspectives Chair: Stephen Davies
10:00 – 10:50	How, and Whether, to Define a Market - Joe Farrell , University of California, Berkeley, Department of Economics. Based on joint work with Carl Shapiro.
10:50 – 11:40	Competition and Regulation: A legal perspective - Cosmo Graham , University of Leicester, Faculty of Law and Director of the Centre for Utility Consumer Law.
11:40 – 12:10	Tea/Coffee
12:10 – 13:00	A median voter explanation of competition-enhancing regulation - Mike Wise/Sean Ennis , both of the Organization for Economic Co-Operation and Development (OECD).
13:00 – 14:00	Lunch
Afternoon session: Interaction Between Competition and Other Laws Chair: Carlo Scarpa
14:00 – 15:30	Examples from Ruth Hancock (Care Homes), School of Medicine, Health Policy and Practice; Michael Harker (Energy Markets), School of Law and CCP; Bruce Lyons , School of Economics and CCP; and Catherine Waddams (Fuel Poverty), Norwich Business School and CCP. All University of East Anglia (UEA).
15:30 – 16:00	Tea/Coffee
Environmental Issues Chair: Bruce Lyons
16:00 – 16:50	Economic Impacts of Implementation of Greenhouse Gas Regulations - Jim Bushnell , University of California, Berkeley, Haas School of Business and University of California Energy Institute.
16:50 – 17:40	Grid externalities and the application of competition law in the gas and electricity industries - Yves Smeers , Université catholique de Louvain, Département d'ingénierie mathématique.
17:40 – 18:10	The future of electricity and gas regulation and competition in a low carbon policy world – Michael Pollitt , Cambridge, Judge Business School.
18:10 – 19:20	Drinks
19:50	Dinner at Delia's Restaurant, Norwich City FC

TUESDAY 8 JULY 2008 – UEA DRAMA STUDIO

Morning sessions: Post and Transport
Chair: Hussein Kassim
08:15 – 09:00	Tea/Coffee/Pastries
09:00 – 09:50	The Interaction between Regulatory and Antitrust Policy in the Postal Sector - John Panzar , Northwestern University, Department of Economics, and University of Auckland.
09:50 – 10:20	Tea/Coffee
10:20 – 11:10	How airline markets work...or do they? - Severin Borenstein , University of California, Berkeley, Haas School of Business and University of California Energy Institute.
11:10 – 12:00	The nexus between competition and regulation in network industries: lessons from developing countries - Antonio Estache , European Centre for Advanced Research in Economics and Statistics (ECARES), Universite Libre de Bruxelles.
12:00 – 13:00	Lunch
Afternoon sessions: Media and Consumer Limitations
Chair: Morten Hviid
13:00 – 13:50	Markets, Regulators, and Communications Policy in the Digital Era - Howard Shelanski , University of California, Berkeley, School of Law, Boalt Hall.
13:50 – 14:40	Gilding the Lily?: BSkyB/ITV and the redundancy of media plurality regulation - Andrew Scott , London School of Economics, Department of Law.
14:40 – 15:10	Tea/Coffee
15:10 – 16:00	Consumer Limitations - Graham Loomes , School of Economics and CCP & Luke Garrod , CCP. Both UEA.
16:00 – 16:30	Concluding Remarks
16:30	Farewell drinks
17:00	Depart